Sr. Loors, March 2, 1881.
A discovery has been made that certain men have been hiring contrabands to take into the interior, ostemably as laborers, but in reality for the purpose of estiling them into bondage.
Several arrests have been ordered. Beveral arrests have been ordered.

A guerille geng has isledy appeared in Wright county, near Lebanon. They are stealing all the horses and cattle they can find. A cavalry force has started in pursuit from Lebanon. The 34th Missouri, weeked on the Iron Mountain Railread on Saturday, left to-ympathiners to have the monopoly of fault-linding with this bill.

The Ways and Means Committee have agreed to a reduction of duty on printing pa-per from 35 to 20 per cent.

The bill for two additional Court of Claims of Ohio, is thought almost certain to be offered one of these judgeships. For the other there are a host of candidates. The extra session of the Senate has been called by the President in the proclamation issued to day. It is announced here that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to issue no more twenty-five or fifty cent postal cur-rency falls in consequence of numerous com-

Let me here say to the Copperheads that when this rebellion is put down, and when this army returns home, there will be a day of fearful fetribution.

There will be the biggest erop of black eyes ever heard of in this country.

I believe Kansas has taken the lead in the country when the country were well as the country when the country were the that paper several columns or extracts from the leading Southern journals appear. The Heroid remarks:

These extracts will be found particularly instructive to all of that class of deluded Northern Fesco Democrats who believe that by means of such soothing applications as armistices and Louisvitte peace conventions, and promises of all sorts of concessions to the rebellion. States, they may be restored to our armistices and Louisville passe consessions to the rebellious States, they may be restored to our rebellious States, they may be restored to our Union, or permit the North, excepting the New England States, to gome under the benings despotism of Jeff. Davis. There is not a shadow of encouragement hade out from the South for any such delusion.

The rebels turn so their dainty moses at all these Northern Democratic peace offerings in the shape of armistices and peace conventions and derunclations of "Lincoln's Administration" and threats of open rebellion agains' it, and candidly declars that they deprind upon
